

CROCKER SNOW JR.

Current Employment

1996-present President, The Money Matters Institute

Previous Employment

1965	Newsweek Magazine , New England Correspondent
1965-67	WGBH Broadcasting , Radio and Television Producer, and Foreign Correspondent in West Germany
1968-69	The Boston Globe , political reporter
1970-71	Assistant Managing Editor
1972-74	Chief Foreign Correspondent in Japan, Vietnam, and East Asia
1976-78	Assistant to the Publisher
1976-78	National and Foreign Editor
1979-01	World Times, Inc., President The WorldPaper (Boston), Editor in Chief.

Education

1961	Harvard, AB 'cum laude', General Studies
1968	Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, MA, International Affairs

Military Service

1962-65	US Navy officer serving at sea and ashore in Sasebo, Japan. Honorable discharge as LT(jg)
1972-74	Civilian Aide to Secretary of Army for Massachusetts Appointment

Publications

1968	"April Crisis at Harvard", magazine on campus protest
1970	"Super Cities", magazine comparing New York, Tokyo, London, and Moscow
1972-76	Many newspaper series and articles and regular editorial page column appearing in Boston, Tokyo, Hong Kong, and Singapore
1976	"The Unfinished Revolution" (edit), essays on American philosophy

Teaching

- Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy, graduate seminar on international communications; 1976 and 1977, 1998, and 1999
- Boston University, graduate seminar on global reporting, 1994

Awards

- UPI Tom Phillips Award, Executive Producer for 8-part radio documentary “On Crime”, 1968
- Major Armstrong Award runner-up for radio documentary “Men Against Hitler”, 1974
- Pulitzer Prize nominee for reporting from Asia, 1974 and 1976
- First Edward R. Murrow Fellow at Fletcher School, 1968

Current Board Membership

- International Honors Program, Boston (Treasurer), American Institute for Public Service
- Jefferson Awards, Washington (Board of Selectors)
- The Editorial Committee of the Development Gateway Foundation
- The Evian Group, Lausanne (Brain Trust)
- “Financing for Development” and WSIS conference, (Business Interlocutor)
- Fundacion para un Nuevo Periodismo, Cartagena
- United Nations Association of Greater Boston
- Japan Society of Boston
- Toynbee Prize Foundation
- World Views Foundation, Colombo